Hostel Committee

Hostels for students' functions with the primary objective of providing them a "Home away from Home" where they can feel comfortable to pursue their academic dream. The hostel provides self-confidence, instils discipline in the minds of students, and provides scope for developing ideals of a harmonious communal living. Self-help and a spirit of accommodation for the common good are some of the virtues expected from the student staying in hostel.

Scope:

The hostel ambience provides scope for developing harmonious communal living and enables them to share the joys of fellowship and professional fraternity. Self-help, co-operation and spirit of common good are some of the virtues anticipated from the inmates of the hostel. The senior inmates of the hostel are expected to be more responsible and set good examples for junior students. Everyone should uphold the dignity and self-respect of every other student in the hostel. Inmates are expected to utilize the best infrastructure facilities and uphold the reputation of the hostel as well as the institute.

Responsibility:
